

Is published daily, (Sundays excepted,) by FRANCISCO & CALDWELL, PROPRIETORS.
PRICE—NO. 14 WEST FOURTH STREET.
THE PENNY PRESS is delivered to subscribers in Cincinnati, Covington and Newport, and surrounding cities and towns, at the extraordinary low price of SIX CENTS A WEEK, PAYABLE TO CARRIER.
PRICES OF MAILING:
Single copies 2c.; 1 month 50c.; 3 months $1.10; 1 year $4.

AMUSEMENTS.

WOOD'S THEATER.

CORNER SIXTH AND VINE STREETS.
JOHN A. ELLIOTT, JR., Sole Lessee and Manager.

Last night of Miss Eliza Logan.

The greatest actress of the present day, who, after this engagement, bids farewell to the Cincinnati stage.

THIS EVENING, January 15, will be presented the beautiful "Five and Ten" called with new force, THE LADY OF LYONS.

Pauline, Miss Logan.
Gladstone, Miss Logan.
Philip D'Arville, Mr. Logan.
Mons. Beaumont, Mr. Logan.
Mad. Duchesne, Mrs. Logan.
Widow Melnotte, Mrs. Logan.
To conclude with the celebrated and most beautiful drama called

THE MANIC LOVER.

OR, THE FAIR LASS OF LITCHFIELD.

Miss Logan.
Philip D'Arville, Mr. Logan.
Mons. Beaumont, Mr. Logan.
Mad. Duchesne, Mrs. Logan.
Widow Melnotte, Mrs. Logan.
To conclude with the celebrated and most beautiful drama called

PIKE'S OPERA-HOUSE.

S. N. Pike, Proprietor.
F. B. Conway, Stage Director.
J. F. Herbert, Treasurer.

First night of these celebrated favorites, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence.

THIS EVENING, January 15, will be presented the comic drama, written by the late Tyrone Power, called

PAUDEN'S ORFÈVRE.

OR, BOON TO GOOD LUCK.

Pauden O'Barry, Mr. Florence.
To conclude with the celebrated French drama, in one act, called

A LESSON FOR HUSBANDS.

Fanny Tattle, Madame Killoff, Mad. and Julie, Rosekiss, Mollie, Lettie, Tom Tattle, Mr. Florence.
Fred O'Barry, Mr. Florence.

A Grand Spectacular Drama in six acts, prepared with new scenery, dresses, effects, &c., and sustained by the entire strength of the company.

Pauden O'Barry, Madame Killoff, Mad.
and Julie, Rosekiss, Mollie, Lettie, Tom Tattle, Mr. Florence.
Fred O'Barry, Mr. Florence.

NATIONAL THEATER.

John Bates, Proprietor and Manager.
W. S. Irwin, Treasurer.

Alteration of Time—Doors open 4 before 7; Curtain rises at 7:30, precisely.

PANTOMIME.

CROWDED HOUSES.
BURSTS OF APPLAUSE.
COMIC PANTOMIME.

Come One! Come All! and see the Grand
COMIC PANTOMIME.

THIS EVENING, January 15, and every evening during the week, will be presented, in which the whole company will appear, and conclude with the glorious Pantomime of HARLEQUIN ADOMALQUE.

On, The Good Fairy Enchantress Over the Demon of Discord.

NOTICE—Families and others are cautioned against furnishing any articles for the theater without a written order, signed by the Manager.

THE NEW NATIONAL THEATER, adjoining the Theater, is now open for the reception of guests.
Rooms can be obtained by the day or week, and meals furnished at all hours.

SMITH & NIXON'S HALL.

25 CENTS TO ALL PARTS OF THE HALL.

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK.

PROF. JACOBS'S

MAGIC WONDERS!

ON THIS DAY, January 15, and EVERY EVENING during the week, will be presented, in which the whole company will appear, and conclude with the glorious Pantomime of

DANCING SCHOOL—SECOND

SESSION—ASSEMBLY ROOMS, Mr. J. J. Jacobs, and Miss Geyer, respectively inform the public, that they have received notice from the City of Cincinnati that they now receive permission for instruction in all fashionable dances, and that they have received notice from the City of Cincinnati that they now receive permission for instruction in all fashionable dances,
and that they have received notice from the City of Cincinnati that they now receive permission for instruction in all fashionable dances,

MR. AND MRS. SHANKS'S

DANCING ACADEMY.

SECOND TERM.
National Hall, Vine-street, a. c. Fifth.
The lessons are so arranged that all can commence at any time.

MUSICAL.

MASONIC QUICK-STEP.

Arranged for Piano, by PROF. SQUIRE, who is a beautiful Lithograph of the New Masonic Building.
Just published by
JOHN GIBSON, Jr.,
101 West Fourth-street.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS—CHEAPER than ever. Great sacrifice of Pianos, Melodeons, Violoncellos, Violins, Organs, Banjo Strings, Trumpets, &c., during the sale. All at Selling at 100 per cent. less than any other place in this city, and first-class instruments at that. Do not buy an instrument until you have called at No. 227 Fifth-street, second door east of Plum, south side. BRITTING & BROS., Piano Makers, and Dealers in First-class Instruments.

I. & B. BRUCE,

Street Railroad Car and Omnibus Manufacturers.

WE ARE BUILDING AND SHALL keep on hand a supply of STREET RAIL-ROAD CARS and Omnibuses, which we will sell equal in style, finish and durability, and at low prices, as any made in the country.
Office—Corner of Third and Vine streets. J. H. B.

BONNETS,

RIBBONS,

FLOWERS

Feathers and Winter Millinery, very description, which I am selling at a considerable discount on New York prices, wholesale and retail.
J. WEBB, Jr.,
154 Fifth-street, bet. Race and Elm.

SADDLE, TRUNK AND HARNESS

MANUFACTORY.

102 Main-street, third door above Third, KEEP ON HAND AND MAKE TO OR-DER all kinds of Horse Trappings, in the best and most substantial manner. Also, a large assortment of Horse Blankets, Whips, Harness and Bridle Bits, Buffalo Robes, Valises (the real valises), Saddle Trunks, Sponges, and a large assortment of leather goods, which I will sell at the lowest.

D. S. GARRICK.

1205 CARTOONS OF CHILDREN'S

1205 Cartoons of Children's Faces, each 25c.
100 pairs of Women's Faced Boots, custom-made, at 75 cents a pair.
In store and for sale by:
JOHN GIBSON, Jr.,
101 West Fourth-street.

JOHN GIBSON'S BEST SUGAR-CURED

Bacon and Beef.
CUTLERS,
101 West Fourth-street.

SALMON AND SMOKED HAL-

BUT AT CUTLERS,
101 West Fourth-street.

OLD JAVA COFFEE AT

CUTLERS,
101 West Fourth-street.

CHOCOLATE AND BLACK TEAS

CUTLERS,
101 West Fourth-street.

The Penny Press.

VOL. 2. NO. 129.

CINCINNATI, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 18, 1860

PRICE ONE CENT

RAILROAD TIME-TABLE.

TRAINS ARRIVE.

LITTLE MIAMI—Night Express, 8:00 A. M.; Accommodation, 10:45 P. M.; Day Express, 6:30 P. M.
INDIANAPOLIS AND CINCINNATI—11:15 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.
OHIO AND MISSISSIPPI—8:25 A. M.; 11:45 A. M.; 10:15
P. M.
CINCINNATI, HAMILTON AND DAYTON—7:45 A. M.; 11:05
A. M.; 12:35 P. M.; 6:32 P. M.; 8:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.

TRAINS DEPART.

LITTLE MIAMI—Day Express, 10:00 A. M.; Accommodation, 1:40 P. M.; Night Express, 11:30 P. M.
INDIANAPOLIS AND CINCINNATI—6:50 A. M.; 12:45 P. M.
M. 7:15 P. M.
OHIO AND MISSISSIPPI—7:20 A. M.; 3:00 P. M.; 7:30 P. M.
CINCINNATI, HAMILTON AND DAYTON—6:00 A. M.; 7:30 A. M.; 10:00 A. M.; 3:40 P. M.; 5:20 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.
M. 1:40 A. M.; 5:40 P. M.; 11:30 P. M.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

Two laborers were killed on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, near Manchester, a day or two since.

The purest metal is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt from the darkest storm.

A sale of fourteen slaves was made in Petersburg, Va., the other day, including men, women and children, for $15,575.

The Queen has been pleased to grant a pension on the civil list, of £125 a year, to the sisters of the late Dr. Lardner, whose contributions to science are so well known.

Mr. William Howitt has undertaken to write a continuation of Goethe's Illustrated History of England, from the accession of George III to the present time.

Mr. Newby, of London, has decided that it is better, "under existing circumstances," not to publish Adam Bede, Junior, a Sequel.

Bryant says that "the groves were God's first temples." A good many romantic young lovers unquestionably find them delightful meeting-places.

R. H. Glass, editor of the Lynchburg (Va.) Republican, was recently held to bail in the sum of $500 for assaulting C. W. Patton, one of the editors of the Virginia.

A Southern exchange is under the impression that if a genuine Yankee were to meet death on a pale horse, he would banter him to swap naps.

Alexander Grimes, for upward of half a century a citizen of Dayton, died there recently, in his sixty-ninth year, of an attack of paralysis.

As Ex-Governor Wise, of Virginia, has returned to the practice of the law, rhetorical sky-rockets may be expected in a very short time from the great "What-an-ass-am I."

The New York Times very justly remarks that most conversations now-a-days are not to holiness, but to a refined worldliness.
Hence the millions so uselessly squandered on church architecture.

A married couple named De Graff, living at Albany, N. Y., separated recently, on account of jealousy, by mutual consent, the mother taking one child and the father the other.

The quantity of cotton in presses and warehouses in New Orleans, at last accounts, was four hundred thousand bales. The extent of sugar yield appears to be settling down on two hundred thousand hogsheads.

Miss Louisa Pyle was suddenly attacked with a violent fit of hysteria, brought on by over exertion, on the night of the 16th ult., and was prevented from appearing at the Royal English Opera.

In Crockett, Texas, about a week ago, a merchant, Dr. Stell, of Leon County, shot Mr. R. Herndon, and Dr. Stell was in turn shot by Mr. Dickson, a clerk in the employ of Mr. Herndon.

Mr. Martin Shive Dowder, a Roman Catholic in Ireland, has followed the example set by several of his co-religionists, and refuses to sign a requisition for a meeting to express sympathy with the Pope.

THE IDEAL BEAUTY OF AMERICAN ARTISTS AND THE OLD MASTERS.—A writer in the New York Independent has the following:

Our American artists conceive a different ideal beauty from the ancients, or even the Continental artists, comparatively modern—such as Raphael, Titian, Tintoretto and others contemporaneous. It has more of the spirituelle, though I will not say less of physical beauty. More of the intellectual, but not at the expense of the emotional. I do not say that they express their ideal as well, or embody it in a form as perfect. But I think I heard little in saying it is a higher ideal of woman than Tintoretto or Titian or even Raaphael seemed to possess, judging from their works—a higher ideal even than is expressed in the physical perfection of the Venus de Medici. It was a natural consequence that artist, living at a time when the intellectual character of women was depreciated, should be influenced by the prevailing sentiment, and so conceive of highest beauty as consisting in external form. The American artist, while he does by no means condemn physical perfection, yet sympathizing with a nobler public sentiment, which I trust pervades our entire people, conceives an ideal of female beauty where perfection of form is united with, and secondary to, purity of heart and nobility of soul. Such ideals, while they are just toward woman, at the same time do her honor.
And such conceptions, embodied in artistic form, make painting and sculpture strong auxiliaries to virtue.

CHANCES OF LITERARY IMMORTALITY.—The tables of literary mortality show the following appalling facts in regard to the chances of an author to secure lasting fame. Out of 1,000 published books, 600 never pay the cost of printing, &c., 200 just pay expenses, 100 return a slight profit, and only 100 show a substantial gain. Of these 1,000 books, 650 are forgotten by the end of the year, and 150 more at the end of three years; only 50 survive seven years' publicity. Of the 50,000 publications put forth in the nineteenth century, hardly more than 50 have a great reputation and are reprinted. Of the 50,000 works published in the eighteenth century, posterity has hardly preserved more than were rescued from oblivion in the seventeenth century. Men have been writing books these 3,000 years, and there are hardly more than 500 writers throughout the globe who have survived the outrages of time and the forgetfulness of man.

CARDINAL WISEMAN.—Intelligence has just reached London that His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman has just arrived in safety at Rome, and has been favored with an interview with the Pope. The illness of the Cardinal, although of a serious character, is not, in the opinion of his physicians, confirmed; still it is not at all unlikely that he will make the Eternal City his residence for the future.

THE STATE EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—John Hudson, Esq., the Superintendent of the Sandusky, Dayton and Cincinnati Railroad, will give orders to conductors to pass free on that road all editors desiring to attend the Editorial Convention at Lima, on the 18th and 19th inst. Papers are desired to copy.

MORMON ADVICE TO COMPLAINING WIVES.

The following advice to wives who are inclined to complain of their husbands is given by Brigham Young, in a sermon lately delivered at Salt Lake City:

I will here make a few remarks which I think will check some of the complaints from women about their husbands. I acknowledge that many women have more than their share of husbands, and for this reason the faith and confidence in them drop; they do not seek to uphold them in the dignity of their position and calling. And again, may be the husband does not magnify his priesthood, follow diligently the duties of his calling, and increase in the faith of the gospel, as it is his privilege to do. He should be the head of the wife, all the day long. I will venture to say a little more upon this point. I like to see people consistent with the wisdom they profess to have. Were I a woman possessed of great powers of mind, filled with wisdom, and, upon the whole, a magnanimous woman, and been privileged with my choice, and had married a man and found myself deceived, he not answering my expectations, and I being sorry that I had made such a choice, let me show my wisdom by not complaining about it. A woman's wisdom and judgment has fallen her own in the choice of a husband, and she again, if she is not very careful. By seeking to cast off her husband, by withdrawing her confidence and good will from him, she casts a dark shade upon his path, when, by pursuing a proper course of love, obedience, and encouragement, he might attain to that perfection she had anticipated in him. When the enemy once gets advantage over you, he is very apt to improve upon it, and to gain a greater when he has another opportunity.

A GENUINE MERMAID IN JAPAN.—A correspondent in Japan says he has seen a veritable mermaid, at least it is so ingeniously put together that no eye can see the joint. He gives this description of the invention, in which it does not appear dangerously seduc-tive by reason of its beauty:

This animal, it is said, consists of a head, in shape, size, formation of the eyes and nose, number, form and position of the teeth, like a monkey's; of a long slender neck; of chest having a sternum and several distinct pairs of ribs. It has long, apple-like arms, terminating in five fingers, of which the middle one is the longest and largest. On the head and body, above the fishy portion, are here and there spots of fur remaining, like the fur of a monkey in length and texture, of a brown color.
The closest scrutiny that can be given fails to reveal any traces of the union of the animal and fish parts. Physiologists say that such a union is impossible; and of the medical and other experts, who have examined this monster, some, baffled to discover by eye-sight, any deception, simply rest on this dictum, and others admit that nothing but a dissection can really settle whether this be a most ingenious fraud or homo natura. For my own part, I must confess that I can see no trick, though it may be one.

FREQUENCY OF MURDER IN NEW ORLEANS.
The New Orleans Picayune, commenting on the frequency of murder in that city, says: We have of late, in this city, been almost daily called upon to record the death of some person by the hand of violence. It seems that difficulties the most trivial are settled only by the pistol or the knife. A slight quarrel in a gambling hall, or a coffee-saloon, between sporting men, a rude encounter between laborers on the levee, or near the crowded rooms which they call homes, is followed by a death-struggle soon afterward in some public place; and so frequently have such tragedies become, that they scarcely awake ordinary interest. Even the policemen, in the discharge of their duties, are now in constant danger of their lives. Within one week past, two or three of the corps have either been killed or dangerously wounded.

THE WIDOW AND THE WIFE—GOOD CAUSE FOR A FIGHT.—A newly made widower of Wayne Township, Ind., and a buxom widow, having been said to be more lovingly inclined to each other than the gossiping neighbors liked, one of them joked him in rough style about sneaking the widow, which made the widow angry, and he replied, "If I sneaked your wife before you ever did, and the only difference I could see between the widow and her was, that while your wife leaned up to me like a sick kitten to a hot brick, as though she loved it, the widow squirmed a little and squeaked." This was the signal for fight, which continued for some time, and until some passers-by separated them. The parties are now at law.

AN ABSURD CRIMINAL.—At a recent scientific meeting in Edinburgh, a criminal dress was exhibited, one-half of which had been immersed in a solution of sulphate of ammonia, in order to test its non-combustibil-ity. On a light having been applied to the criminals, the part which had not been steeped in the solution was at once enveloped in flames, but the only effect which the light had on the other part was to char it.

VIRGINIA INDIGNANT AT VIRGINIANS.—A recent article in the Richmond Enquirer expresses just indignation toward the business men in Richmond who do the wages of their clerks while they were off "sojering" at Charleston during the late panic. It thinks the Virginians may as well patronize Northern Abolitionists as such unprincipled Virginians.

LARGE COURT FOR A LITTLE PRISON.—A case was tried in the Joliet (Ill.) Circuit Court last week which excited considerable interest.
The suit was brought against a young man named Peter Spangler, by George Heinselman, for the seduction of his daughter, a young girl under seventeen years of age, of very prepossing appearance and manners. The jury after a short absence, returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $5,000 damages.

DEATH OF YOUNG MACREADY.—At the Theater Royal, Ballarat, on Monday night, Mr.
Edward Macready, a son of the eminent tragedian, made his debut as Claude Melnotte in the "Lady of Lyons." The manner in which the character was sustained evinced considerable attention and study, but failed to convince any one that the debutant is yet qualified to rank among the "stars."

SHOCKING CARBAMEN.—W. P. Dullin, of Boston, Md., playfully presented a loaded revolver at his wife, last week, when by some means it exploded, driving the ball into her cheek and neck. Her recovery is considered doubtful.

A NEW KIND OF STREET LOCOMOTIVE.—It is said that for some days past a new style locomotive for drawing city railroad cars through the streets, has been in successful operation in one of the ship yards in New York. It consists of a small Ericsson caloric engine, and it is said to do its work in a satisfactory and economical manner.

NOT SKIMPY.—A statement that Leigh Hunt was the original of "Harold Skimpole" in Black House, which originated in this country, and has since been copied quite extensively into the English press, is denied by Mr.
Dickens in All the Year Round.

A young lady remarked to a male friend that she feared she would make a poor sailor.
The gentleman promptly answered: "But I'm sure you would make an excellent mate."

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH

Washington News.

New York, January 17.—Washington correspondence of the Frederick and Frederick visited the President, recently, to invite several Eastern Republican Senators to a private conference upon the Mexican treaty, with a view to presenting considerations which might influence their votes. It is now admitted that if the treaty fails, Juarez must fall.

The Senate, yesterday, had an Executive Session on Mr. Faulkner's nomination. When called up, Mr. Wilson produced the extract from Mr. Faulkner's speech, in which he recommended resistance to the inauguration of a Republican President. Mr. Wilson argued that the nomination should lie over until inquiry could be made into these sentiments, saying that he could never vote for a man who entertained them.

Mr. Doolittle regarded Mr. Faulkner's sentiments as reasonable, and would have the Senate treat them with their condemnation.
Mr. Mason said they reflected the opinions of Virginia, and also, he believed, of the whole South.

Mr. Wigfall made his debut in a fierce speech, promising that Texas would unite with the South in extreme measures. He justified Mr. Faulkner's declarations in every sense.

Messrs. Clay and Toombs followed in the same temper. Finally the division stood thirty for confirmation and twenty-one against.

Mr. Doolittle was absent unpaired. It is not developments have been made before the Senate's Harper's Ferry Committee, with which the public are not already familiar through the trial.

The correspondent of the Times states: Rumor says that a Cabinet officer will probably resign to-morrow. The alleged reasons are ill-health and pressing of private business, but the real reason is a difference with the President as to the prospective policy to be pursued by the Administration toward Douglas. The ex-member has not, for some weeks, been on good terms with Mr. Buchanan. The President to-day received a letter from Mr.
Hughes, of Indiana, accepting his appointment as Judge of the Court of Claims, when his nomination was immediately sent in and referred.

The protest of the Miramonte Government is considered offensive in terms by our Government, and it will probably be referred. It is said to have been written by the French Minister in Mexico. It is not true that Miramonte has agents here operating against the success of the treaty now pending.

The Harvard correspondent says: The Executive session in the Senate to-day was probably the most violent that ever disgraced that body.

Mr. Gillingham made a severe speech against the decision of Seward.

Mr. Doolittle resented to Gillingham, and charged upon the South with severity, when Toombs gave the lie to Doolittle, and the latter shut it back.

Consideration followed, and then a hurried adjournment.

Old Senators say there has not been so stormy an Executive session since the rejection of Mr. Van Buren and the attempted rejection of Edward Everett. The difficulty grew out of the charge brought by Mr. Wilson, that Faulkner, the nominee to the French mission, was a disunionist.

Information was received here to-day that 3,500 men are now in New Orleans, ready to embark for Vera Cruz.

They go out as immigrants, and will be received into citizenship by the Juarez government, when they will be mustered into service under American officers, such as Generals Ring and Wheat, and will sustain the Liberal Government until the Senate ratifies the Mexican Treaty. The leaders of this expedition expect, as a reward for their services, the renewal of the grant for a railroad from Aransas Bay to Matamoros—the original charter for which was granted under Santa Anna.

The immigrants are to remain as laborers in constructing this railroad, keeping up, meanwhile, their military organization.

The Senate Harper's Ferry investigating Committee, to-day, the examination of Mr. Arrol, a member of the Kansas National Committee. He informed the committee that he was acquainted with matters appertaining to Brown's business in Kansas which may throw some light upon his subsequent movements at Harper's Ferry; but that before testifying he would be obliged to return to Kansas to procure certain books and papers, so that he could give a more full and accurate statement of money placed in his hands by individuals and committees, and how it was appropriated, thereby showing definitely how much was paid to Brown, by whose order and for what purpose.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, January 17.—The following is a synopsis of Mr. Bigler's bill:

SECTION 1. Provides that whenever any State or Territory is invaded, or in imminent danger of invasion from external or internal force, it shall be lawful for the President to call out the military of the State or Territory nearest the point of danger; also, to employ the land or naval forces of the United States.

SEC. 2. Provides that any person actually engaged or participating in carrying on a hostile expedition from one State or Territory against another shall be adjudged guilty of treason and suffer death.

SEC. 3. Provides that any person having knowledge of such treason, and who shall neglect to disclose the same at the earliest moment, shall be adjudged guilty of misdemeanor of treason, and shall be fined not exceeding $1,000 and imprisoned not over seven years.

SEC. 4. Gives power to the President to seize and detain any vessels fitted out by one State against another for hostile purposes.

SEC. 5. Any materials, arms, valuables, &c., found in such vessels shall be forfeited, and all going to the government, the other half to the informer.

SEC. 6. Any person furnishing or providing means or money for such hostile expedition shall be deemed guilty of felony, and fined not over $3,000, and imprisoned not over ten